

Interview Winnie KS Hui

1. About artworks on display: where does the inspiration come from?

I love hiking idea from nature for my artwork a journey to listen to my heart, same as making art

2. Value and meaning

for the plum blossom and bamboo paintings plum blossom in cold winter bamboo standing straight and upright for the landscape paintings stones to create imaginary landscape craggy mountain, no path to walk through, not as traditional Chinese landscape painting

3. About Women's Day

In Hong Kong, there is a great improvement in gender equality there is not a clear line between men and women in the working society men will contribute to daily household chores too it's nearly impossible to make any in-person celebrations due to the pandemic, many events are canceled. Luckily I have got you to help to display my artworks in Florence.
